

universität innsbruck

universität
wien

Austrian Experimental Economics Workshop 2026

WU Vienna

September 24 - 25

Venue: WU Vienna, Building D5, room D5.1.001

Preliminary Program

Thursday, September 24

13:00-13:30	Registration and Coffee
13.30 - 14.50	Session 1 (D5.1.001)
13.30 - 13.50	Amando Holzknicht (University of Innsbruck) The effects of uncertainty around ESG-ratings on retail investors' preferences: Experimental evidence
13.50 - 14.10	Berivan Gürel (University of Graz) Gender/Sex Differences in the Impact of Salient Financial Cues on Investment Decisions
14.10 - 14.30	Roxanne Kovacs (University of Gothenburg) Gender-based discrimination in healthcare: Audit-study evidence from Kenya
14.30 - 14.50	Ebony Granada (WU Vienna) Physician gender and patient resignation
14.50 - 15.10	Coffee Break
15.10 - 17.00	Session 2 (D5.1.001)
15.10 - 15.30	Nathalie Römer (WU Vienna) It's a match! Team composition and performance in innovation-related tasks
15.30 - 15.50	Ondrej Krcal (Masaryk University) Repeated Large-Scale Public Goods Games with Local Information
15.50 - 16.10	Drew Dimmery (Hertie School) Designing Multi-Arm Experiments for Global Average Treatment Effects Under Partial Interference
16.10 - 16.30	Michael Kirchler (University of Innsbruck) Credibility of Science. Relevance of Large-Team Science
17.00	Keynote: Dirk Wulff (MPIB Berlin / WU Vienna) tba
19:00	Workshop dinner

Friday, September 25

08.30 - 11.00	Breakfast with Flash Talks (Lounge D5, 6th floor) Stefan Palan (University of Graz) Educate or automate? The role of sustainable finance literacy and default nudges in sustainable investing Miloš Fišar (Masaryk University) Prizes vs. Bid Preferences in Innovation Procurement Jürgen Huber (University of Innsbruck) Knowledge and Beliefs About Behavioral Biases Johan Santiago Ruiz Moreno (WU Vienna) Providing Social Information on Crowdfunding: Evidence From A Threshold Public Good Experiment Michael Hilweg-Waldeck (University of Würzburg) Anticipated Discrimination, Gender Stereotypes, and Competitive Choices in Job Applications: A Large-Scale Online Experiment Gilad Feldmann (University of Innsbruck) Mapping factors in Charitable Giving using large-team science Michael Keinprecht (WU Vienna) Targeting Parental Stereotypes: Investment Responses to Information about STEM
11.00 - 12.20	Session 3 (D5.1.001)
11.00 - 11.20	Christos Apostolides (Masaryk University) The Roles of Beliefs and Ambiguity
11.20 - 11.40	Yuliya Petrenko (University of Economics in Bratislava) Hugs or Handshakes Away: Decision Making for Others in Household Context
11.40 - 12.00	Moritz Löwenfeld (University of Vienna) Why Do People Prefer Smaller Menus? An Experimental Investigation
12.00 - 12.20	Ludwig Müller Flores (BOKU Vienna) Learning from Extreme Weather: A Belief Elicitation Experiment in an Agricultural Context
12.20 - 13.00	Light Lunch
13.00 - 14.00	Session 4 (D5.1.001)
13.00 - 13.20	Sabrina Rosa Rinder (University of Graz) Competition for used apparel acquisition between charities and for-profit organizations
13.20 - 13.40	Diana Lauer (WU Vienna) Mirror, Mirror on the Wall: How Training with an Enhanced AI Self-Avatar Improves Pitch Performance via Self-Regulated Learning
13.40 - 14.00	Hannah Fleischanderl (WU Vienna) Advisor Attire, Perceived Risk Orientation, and Client Choices
14.00	Closing